SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...1846. They couldn't get, by praying to God, any relief from the penal laws. They were not guaranteed safe passage when those ships were sliding through or bumping over the waves of the Atlantic Ocean between Ireland and the United States, or England and the United States, or England or Ireland and Canada. All those prayers were for naught. And that's why a lot of times I don't make an appeal around here to that which is right. It has to all be reduced to a political question. And that's where we are on this bill, and I intend to battle until the cows come home.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. The motion is to reconsider the previous question. Those in favor vote aye, those opposed nay. Mr. Clerk, please record.

CLERK: 0 ayes, 3 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to reconsider.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The motion is not agreed to. Mr. Clerk, items for the record.

CLERK: Thank you, Mr. President. Your Committee on Health and Human Services reports LB 1022 to General File; LB...that's signed by Senator Jensen as Chair. Transportation Committee reports LB 1012 to General File; LB 1018, LB 1019, LB 1075, to General File; LB 951, General File with amendments; and LB 997 and LB 1020 as indefinitely postponed.

Mr. President, I have a confirmation report from the Transportation Committee. Hearing notice from Business and Labor. An A bill, Mr. President. Senator Schrock offers LB 900A. (Read by title for the first time.) Mr. President, bills read on Final Reading this morning were presented to the Governor at 9:55 a.m. (re LB 884-894). That's all that I have at this time, Mr. President. (Legislative Journal, pages 488-489.)

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Mr. Clerk, item on the desk?

CLERK: Mr. President, priority motion. Senator Chambers would
